Each team will choose their team's official equipment to wear during the tournament. All team jerseys must be numbered;

If the teams' equipment is the same colour, or if the referee deems it necessary, the HOME team (according to the match sheet) should use the alternative kit.

5. - LAWS OF THE GAME

5.1. - GENERAL

All matches will be played according to the laws of the game – Seven-a-side football and Eleven-a-side football, in the FPF (Portuguese Football Federation) Official Matches Regulations.

5.2. - Punctuality/ Failure to appear

Schedules are strict.

Teams must be prepared 10 (ten) minutes before the start of each match and there will be a ten-minute tolerance, only with the organization's express consent.

In case of non-attendance of one of the teams, the opponent team will win the respective points of the match (three points) with a 5-0 (five-nil) result.

5.3. - Walking out onto the pitch

The walking out will take place in the same way as in international FIFA games. Teams will walk out in a line at the start of each match, with the referees in front, side by side with the skippers, moving towards the centre of the field. They will form a line and greet the stands. Then both teams will greet each other.

5.4. - Substitutions

Substitutions are free and unlimited in every category. They must be carried out at the halfway line and the outgoing player must leave the field before the incoming player enters. The game can only be interrupted to replace the goalkeeper.

5.5. - Offside and delay of game to goalkeeper

The offside law in seven-a-side football only apply in the age groups under-12 (2007) will be sanctioned from the goal area line.

Intentionally delaying the ball to the goalkeeper using the foot will be sanctioned with an indirect free kick by the opponent team in all age groups. Throwing in directly to the goalkeeper will also be considered intentional delay of game.

6. - DISCIPLINE

Getting two yellow cards in the same match will result in expulsion of the player from the field and a one-match ban.

Getting one yellow card in a game does not accumulate for the rest of the event matches.

Getting one single direct red card will result in expulsion and a one-game to three-game ban.

In the situation above, besides the ban, the player in question may even be expelled from the tournament, depending on the seriousness of the misconduct.

Any physical aggression confirmed by the referee or any organization member will be immediately punished with a minimum of a two-game ban with a possibility of escalating to expulsion from the tournament.

If a team plays with a player who is not registered or who has been sent off, it will lose the game in question by 0-5 (nil-five).

7. - PROTESTS

If a team wants to protest about a match, it should do so to the field commissioner and the referee has to mention it in the game sheet. This protest shall be in writing with enough evidence to be accepted. Moreover, a deposit of 250 euros has to be made. The protest will be assessed at the end of the round by the Disciplinary Committee. The deposit will only be returned if the decision is favorable.

No protests may be made about the referee's decisions regarding game-related situations. Such decisions are final and not subject to appeal, unless otherwise stipulated in the Regulations.

8. - BANNING TEAMS AND/OR PLAYERS

The organization may, at any time, ban a team or player from the tournament if they display inappropriate behaviour that may jeopardize the orderly functioning of the event.
